Information in 2021/2022 Secondary One Discretionary Places Application

1. School Aims: The motto of our school is “Be faithful, diligent and stay simple. Love God and one another”. Our school is committed to provide student-centered education services to help our students explore their potential and achieve balanced development in moral, intellectual, physical, social, aesthetic and spiritual aspects.

2. School Characteristics: Our school has been a catholic secondary school with long history. The ethos of the school is simple, harmonious and orderly. We have won the Caring School Award for twelve consecutive years. Our teachers enthusiastically teach, guide and care about our students. Our school is rated as a value-added school, and the academic results of our students in the Hong Kong Diploma of Secondary Education Examination (HKDSE) have been continuously improving. Our graduates get an encouraging amount of degree offers while many of them have been admitted for undergraduate studies at local famous universities. We develop students’ creative thinking and enhance their multi-intelligence development. Our school curriculum is diversified in order to accommodate students’ potential and development needs.

* To provide better care to our students, we provide school bus service to serve students living in Sham Shui Po District, Northern District and those cross-bordered students.

3. Medium of Instruction: Our school adopts Chinese as the medium of instruction in majority subjects. We also place strong emphasis on enhancing students’ English proficiency. Mathematics, Geography, Integrated Science, Computer Literacy and Commercial Studies also conduct English extended learning activities (ELA) in all junior classes. English Language and content subject teachers co-organize cross-curricular English enhancement activities.
